REFLECTION

The Feast of the Holy Trinity

Imagine you're deep in conversation with a close friend, and out of nowhere, he says, "There's something I want to tell you, but I can't – not yet." You would be intrigued, and maybe, depending on what you thought the withheld news was, a bit anxious.

Now put yourself in the disciples' shoes: Jesus, the rabbi you have traveled with for three years, begins to tell you several mysterious things and then says something very similar: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now: (John 16:12). How would you feel? Curious? Afraid? Or maybe relieved – you don't want to know what else is coming!

Whatever you may feel, Jesus says, very simply, "take courage," and "have peace in me" (John 16:33). If you want answers to some of life's questions, be at peace: God has a plan, and he will give you the answers at just the right time. If you would rather not hear God's answers because you're afraid of what he may say, also be at peace: God has courage and wisdom to help you; he will be with you every step of the way.

Today, no matter where you land, know that you can rely on your God, the Holy Trinity whose solemnity we celebrate today. Choose to put your trust in him. Ask him to give you his peace. And even if you don't feel particularly peaceful, try your best to take heart.

No matter how you feel, no matter what you are experiencing, you are wrapped in the love of almighty God. Your Father loves you and is watching over you. His Son has laid down his life for you and opened heaven's gate to you. And the Holy Spirit lives in your heart, constantly filling you with divine grace and power.

"Thank you, Holy Trinity, for your encouragement and strength. Help me to turn to you and trust in you today."

LITURGY

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

God created Wisdom before he created the earth or the skies. This spirit stood beside God every day until the earth was complete, then "found delight in the people of the earth." This indicates that the spirit of wisdom was later personified by Jesus.

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Paul says that we are now at peace with God through our faith in Jesus. We also hope to see the glory of God. This hope will not leave us disappointed because of the love God has shown in sending us the Holy Spirit.

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Jesus tells the disciples that when he leaves them, a Spirit will help guide them to the truth. This Spirit will announce what he hears from Jesus, rather than speaking on his own. Everything God has also belongs to Jesus, which is why those things announced by the Spirit will actually come from Jesus.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: CORPUS CHRISTI

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17

CONGRATULATIONS!

We extend our congratulations to Marcy Wavle who was awarded the Vivere Christus medal by Bishop Serratelli last Sunday in St. Philip's Church, Clifton. Each year, every parish in our diocese is asked to nominate a parishioner for this award.

Marcy was chosen because of her generous service to our parish family. As Parish Sacristan she helps in washing the purificators and corporals that are used in the celebration of the Eucharist. She extends herself in so many ways to insure that we have all that we need for Mass. Marcy also sings in the choir, is a member of our Liturgical Committee and has a green thumb in planting flowers outside to enhance the beauty of our church. We are grateful for her participation in our parish family.
