A LETTER FROM BISHOP SERRATELLI

As you are well aware, this year we are celebrating the 100th anniversary of the apparitions of our Blessed Mother at Fatima. The message of Fatima, strengthened and authenticated by fulfillment of its prophecies in history, remains as needed today as it was when Lucia and her two cousins, Jacinta and Francisco, heard it from the lips of Our Lady. In an age when human kind continues its rebellion against the will of God, Mary repeats for each of us the first words of Jesus in his public ministry. She brings to us Christ's call to conversion. "The kingdom of God is close a hand. Repent and believe the gospel" (Mk 1:15).

At Fatima, Our Lady asked us to find in her heart the door to Christ. By consecrating ourselves to her Immaculate Heart, we accept the will of Christ who gave Mary to be our Mother. As we celebrate the centenary of these apparitions, I ask you to join with me in the consecration of our diocese to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. As your Bishop, I will personally make this consecration on the morning of May 13, 2017, the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima, at the end of diaconate ordination. The act of consecration itself is a biblical prayer modeled on the words of St. John Paul II. Below is the prayer:

Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Mary, chosen by the Father from all eternity, you offer us Jesus, the blessed fruit of your womb, the Word made flesh, the world's Redeemer. On the cross, your Son gave you, his own Mother, to be our Mother, entrusting us to your loving care. Therefore, in obedience to his will, this day, we kneel in humble prayer before you, placing ourselves, our families, our loved ones, our entire diocese in the shelter of your Immaculate Heart. By this act of consecration, we, like John the Apostle, wish to take you into our homes and lives.

Most Holy Virgin, at the Annunciation, you became the first disciple, accepting Jesus into your life. Now, assumed into heaven, you do not abandon all who follow Jesus, but accompany us on the way of discipleship. Plead for us with your beloved Son that he may give us in abundance the Holy Spirit to strengthen our faith, increase our hope and inflame our charity. Be with us in trial and suffering, in joy and happiness, every moment of our lives and most especially, at the hour of our death.

O Mother, Queen of Heaven and Earth, you know our sufferings and hopes. Look kindly upon all people and all nations and, by your powerful intercession, lead them to Christ the Prince of Peace. Mary, Joy of Fatima, you see our struggles between good and evil, between light and darkness. Embrace, with the love of a mother each of us who entrust and consecrate ourselves to you. To you, Dawn of Salvation, we commit our life journey, so that, with you as guide, we may truly know and follow Christ, the light of the world and its only Savior, who reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit forever and ever.

Amen.

LITURGY

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 2:14a, 36-41

With great authority, Peter proclaims to the people that the Christ who was crucified is indeed the Messiah. Urging them to reform and be baptized in the name of Christ, three thousand responded to his words and were baptized.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:20b-25

This is a strong exhortation from Peter to the people to endure suffering for Christ as he did for them. Healed by his wounds, they have "returned to the shepherd."

Gospel: John 10:1-10

Christ uses the beautiful image of the shepherd to describe his care for his sheep. He also says he is the sheepgate and promises that "Whoever enters through me will be safe."

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 6:1-7

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:4-9

Gospel: John 14:1-12

REV. GEORGE A. BROWN SCHOOL

These Reverend Brown students were “caught in the act of kindness” at Reverend Brown School! Teachers are on the lookout for students who go out of their way to show kindness to others. The children at Reverend Brown are going above and beyond every day without asking for anything in return.

This is our way of honoring them and recognizing their efforts.

“No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted.” - Aesop

The acts of kindness shown by our students each day make Reverend Brown a wonderful place. One may never know to what extent his kindness will impact the life of another.

H.E.A.R.T. PRINTS

“Whatever our hands touch we leave fingerprints – on walls, on furniture, on doorknobs, dishes, books. There’s no escape. As we touch, we leave our identity.

O God, wherever I go today, help me to leave heart prints – heart prints of compassion, of understanding, of love. Heart prints of kindness and genuine concern. May my heart touch a struggling child, or an anxious parent, or a stressed colleague or perhaps a friend or loved one in pain. Lord, send me out today to leave heart prints. And if someone should say “I felt your touch,” may that person sense your love touching through me.”
--Adapted from the Mercy Book to Nourish Your Heart and Soul
